Governor's message

“Change the world with the Magic of Rotary!”

Rotary International District 2750, 2024-25 Governor Chie Ito

“Rotary - The Meaning and Joy of Participation”

It is the season of colorful flowers in full bloom. We have now entered the final quarter of the Rotary year. How have you been engaging with Rotary this year? Are you enjoying your journey? Are you finding your time as a Rotarian fulfilling and meaningful?

Each of us has our own reasons and purposes for being a member of Rotary. Some may seek to expand their network, while others may wish to engage in meaningful service activities that cannot be done alone. Some may hope to gain knowledge and insights from people across various fields and generations, while others may see Rotary as a path for personal growth and self-improvement.

As for myself, as the president of a small company, I am, so to speak, a "big fish in a small pond." Yet, Rotary has given me invaluable insights and learning opportunities. It has now been 30 years since I joined Rotary. Over these years, I have had the privilege of encountering wonderful people and gaining insights that I could never have obtained within my own professional circle. In particular, I have met many people who embody the spirit of selflessness, serving as role models for how to live a fulfilling life. These encounters have not been limited to my club but have extended to the district, across Japan, and more recently, onto the global Rotary stage.

The more you engage with Rotary, the more connections you will make. And these connections often evolve into lifelong bonds. You probably receive various invitations to seminars and events from your club and district. Instead of thinking, "I'm too busy," I encourage you to consider, "Let me find a way to make time and attend."

Additionally, you may be asked to take on leadership roles within your club or district. Many of us have learned that when asked to serve, the appropriate response is, "Yes! Of course! Gladly!" Recently, we have added another phrase to this—"I've been waiting for this!" By embracing such opportunities with a positive attitude, you will find yourself enriched with more encounters and learning experiences.

Of course, work is important. I, too, have had times when I was unable to take on certain roles due to professional commitments. However, whenever possible, I have taken on challenges that seemed beyond my abilities, relying on the support of fellow Rotarians. Through these experiences, I have formed invaluable relationships, gained profound knowledge, and accumulated treasures in my life.

Since you are already a member of Rotary, I encourage you to actively participate. You will surely discover treasures in your life that you never expected when you first joined.

For the remaining three months, I hope you will make the most of your time and use this as a stepping stone for the next year. Nothing would bring me greater joy as Governor than to see you accomplish this.

For those who hold specific responsibilities in your clubs, let's give our final push toward achieving our goals for the year. Reaching our objectives will not only build our confidence but also invigorate our clubs. Let us continue working together to energize our clubs and enjoy a fulfilling and meaningful Rotary life!
